“ I baby sat for Michael Logan many years ago when I was a teenager. Millie and her first husband lived down the street from my parents. I always loved Millie and she was always so kind to me. She was a wonderful, happy lady who always had a smile for everyone. I am saddened to hear of her passing but I hope she is at peace. My condolences to her family, especially Michael.##imported-begin##Ann Braukhoff Happe##imported-end##

“ Millie: You were a fighter till the end I will always remember our "good" times at St. Anthony's and Rex Mundi along with working with you on the Reunion Committees. You were always one of the nicest, personable people I knew and you had an infectious smile for everyone. Rest in Peace Millie, you definitely deserve the break from all physical problems you have endured with a strength we all can appreciate during your lifetime. Sincere condolences to the Family.##imported-begin##David R Wargel##imported-end##
