“ Remember that there was always a cold Stroh's Beer in the fridge or as Nancy called it "burnt beer". The great burgers we got at the Super Inn. Sitting in the recliner watching MTV and Nancy accusing me of getting the dog drunk. Out in the back drinking beer and listening to Knights In White Satin. I would complain about how boring the west side was so he had a couple of cars catch fire in front of the house. Nancy singing at the bank "Let Milo open the door". We lost touch many years ago but I could never forget the friendship. Thank you so much for the memories and we will meet again some day.

“ Remember Me:

To the living, I am gone.

To the sorrowful, I will never return.

To the angry, I was cheated,

But to the happy, I am at peace,

And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.

So as you stand upon a shore, gazing at a beautiful sea - remember me.

As you look in awe at a mighty forest and its grand majesty - remember me.

As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity - remember me.

Remember me in your heart, your thoughts, your memories of the times we loved, the times we cried, the times we fought, the times we laughed.

For if you always think of me, I will never be gone.

Nancy and Liz, I am so sorry for your loss. You have my deepest condolences. Hold on to Milo's memories and keep his legacy alive.

Milo will never be forgotten.

“ The only Milo I knew and probably the only one I ever will. As unique as his name. Post high school, he, Craig Roberts and I chimed around for a while and a couple notable adventures (all within the law). Milo was good storyteller and liked to laugh. Spoke with Milo a month or so ago and had a good phone visit. Milo...glad I knew ya. Hope we meet in the after-life. Peace.

“ For the past 13 years, Milo and Nancy have been our neighbors and they have shown us nothing but love the whole time. We have grown to love them both more as family than neighbors. We are going to miss Milo coming outside to wave and saying hello neighbor. We were so sorry to hear about Milo’s passing and he is going to be missed greatly by our family. Sending lots of love and prayers to Nancy, Liz and the rest of the McKain family.
