“ My husband and I wanted to convey our deepest sympathy to the family and friends who have lost their beloved "Jack". We too have lost ones very dear to us and know the pain experienced at such times. In 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it brings out that "the God of all comfort" comforts us so that we might be able to help comfort others. That is why we wanted to write to you today. We have found the hopes and promises that have been given to us through the scriptures to be a source of true encouragement and comfort. In John 11:11-44 we read about Christ Jesus resurrecting his friend Lazarus right before the very eyes of his family and those who had come to be with the family. We can imagine what a joyous occasion this would have been for them. We have that same hope. In John 5:28,29 Jesus says "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Our Heavenly Father has promised us that soon "death will be no more" that "he will swallow death forever". (Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 25:8) How wonderful this will be. We sincerely hope that these and other scriptures bring you the comfort and encouragement that they have given us. Please continue to look to the love and support of those around you and to our Heavenly Father "the God of all comfort". Again, we are so sorry for your loss.
With Sincere Sympathy,
Mike and Becky###imported-begin###Mike and Becky###imported-end##

“ Mary Jane,

Your father was a wonderful man and I clearly remember when I first met him in my teenage years. He has a smile that warmed the heart.

The thoughts and prayers from family and friends are with you in your time of grief. May your memories bring you comfort.
