Nancy will always be remembered with a smile on her face. The bus trips were a great memory I will always hold dear. She is in the comfort of angel wings now. May you find peace knowing God is holding her hand.

“ *The most memorable part of the annual trip of the card-cub-that-doesn't-play-cards, this year was the journey home. Nancy was her usual happy gregarious self. She climbed out of the van at every stop to hug us all goodbye. When we arrived at home, her Joe and the family came out to greet her. Her grandson carried in her suitcase, looking back at us as if to say, hurry on in and be with us now. We could see she had the best this life offers. Now she has been hurried on, again although I cannot stay my tears, in faith and hope I am comforted. I know she has been welcome home, knowing she now has the best that our next life offers. Welcome home is heard from all that have gone before her. Nancy is now basking in our our imperfect and God's perfect love. “ Joey - We were very saddened to hear about Nancy's passing. She was truly one of the nicest people I have ever met (unpresuming and warm). I will always remeber her smile and laughter - I'm sure she left an impression on many (as you have also by the way). Our prayers are with you and the boys and families.

“ Brian and family,

I was sorry to hear about your loss. Your mom was a wonderful person, and always made your friends feel welcomed at your house.

Some of my best memories of growing up in Evansville was spending time at your house playing video games and capture the flag.

Your entire family will be in my family's thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

My condolences,
