“ Dear Navi, Its Kaleb McNary and I just want u to know that even though we haven't talked since 5th grade that you were still a great friend to me and everyone around you you made me laugh everyday on the bus when we used to go to orchestra and school you used to make everybody's day and we don't see why you had to leave us so soon. The teachers at your school cried for Navi its because you were very loved. I want to know whatever you were going through and whoever was messing with you, you did not deserve it at all but i want you to know that we love you and we will miss u

“ i met navi last year around this exact time. i was surprised by how much me and her were alike although we didn't get to see each other often bc of busy schedules and the distance i still managed to talk to her almost every single day. navi was one of the best people i've ever met she listened to everything i had to say and helped me with anything i needed help with. for that i'm grateful. my dad is heartbroken for the family. he met her and her step mother at my choir concert. she came all that way bc she wanted to record my solo. my heart goes out to the family and close friends of navi. i miss her so much “ Navi is my son Xavier's girlfriend. They both played violin in Honors Orchestra. He cares so much for her. He's heartbroken. Her family are in our thoughts & our prayers. I am so very sorry & sad for the loss of this little girl. On valentines day, they went to the movies & also exchanged gifts. She got him chocolates & curly hair product that he's been wanting, which was the best thing in the world to him. I knew that she really knew him well. She was so sweet & beautiful. Rest peacefully, Navi.
