“ Very sad to hear this news. I actually talked to Nikki a lot later in life and we enjoyed reminiscing about our school days. She was a sweet person and it's tough to see her gone now. ”

Corey Woolsey - September 16, 2025 at 06:37 PM

Thanks for sharing your memories of Nikki, Corey.

“ I was really sad to see this. I met Nikki in junior high and we had been friends since. She had been through so much and was misunderstood by many, but her and I always clicked. I pray her soul is at peace.

Thank you, Sally, I remember you. The massive stroke she suffered 6 months ago was devastating but Nikki battled so hard. We know that she is at peace and healthy and whole once more.

I was honored to be one of the many that took care of her at St. Vincent. And as a fellow classmate, I will miss her. We had many laughs and deep conversations in the hospital. I won't forget her!

“ I am so so sorry Terri- she certainly fought the good fight- great is her reward! My heart aches for you as a mother who also lost a daughter- you will never be the same, but never lose hope! We have a promise to hold on to- you will see her again! I am praying for you and all of those who loved her. ❤️😭🙏

Janene Enochs Michel - September 04, 2025 at 11:28 AM

Thank you, Janine. I know you understand. I believe in that promise! I will see her again. We appreciate your prayers.
