“ MY SYMPATHY AND PRAYERS TO FR. RAY AND HIS FAMILY FOR THE LOSS OF NORBERT. VERNON MARX

VERNON MARX - May 18, 2025 at 04:59 PM

“ Norbert was one of a kind. He learned his craft while working at a furniture factory. He would bring pieces of furniture home and refinish them, including caning the seats on chairs. He would put the caning material in a bucket of water until it was pliable enough to weave in the chair seat. One thing he refinished was a love seat, not a normal one, but one where the couple would face each other. The seat had a railing that was shaped like an "S". Even while he was working full time at L&N Railroad, he made many things, including the altar and ambo at St Boniface and many pieces for the church in Sullivan when Fr Ray was a pastor there. The list goes on and on with the accomplishments that he has done. Before he passed away, he made a military burial flag holder for our Daughter, Andrea, after she lost her husband unexpectedly. Also, Mary his wife, would help him doing many things to help them. He missed her so much and now they are together. Eternal rest to them.

*I'll miss my visits with him, always sitting on that back porch. Me, full of questions that he loved giving answers to. Tried every time to talk him out of that motorcycle but he wouldn't budge. He probably knew it was for the best. And him and Mary loved my mom and sister, and helped whenever they needed him. Forever grateful for that.
Luv ya, Norbert*
