“ Dear Mr. Monarch: Thanks for all the wonderful memories from my early years in Evansville. Thanks for always letting me in your front door and announcing my presence (“Max...It’s Gordon”). Thanks for letting us learn how to play pool on your pool table when we weren’t running the race cars or trains on top of it. Thanks for not taking a blanket you needed that was draped over what you thought was simply a table and some chairs...which would have destroyed our “USS Enterprise spaceship”. Thanks for not throwing out all the old wood when you rebuilt your dock on the lake so we could finally build a tree house in the woods. Thanks for letting us ride in the back of your pickup truck when you drove us into town for ice cream and for using the hood when we invented a new card game called “beat”. And most of all, a great big thanks for being such a great neighbor and friend to my parents, my brother and me.##imported-begin##Gordon Ohning##imported-end##
