“ Hi- My name is Lori Barron. I work in Deacones cardiac rehab. I just wanted you to know how special we thought "Red" was. He was in our program for several years. I know he struggled with breathing and other physical problems but always tried to give it his all. He talked about his family often and I know he cared so much about all of you.

Please know our lives are richer for having known "Red"

Love, Lori Barron and the cardiac rehab team. :)###imported-begin##Lori Barron###imported-end##

“ My heart really goes out to the Mosby family with my deepest sympathy.
As the family knows, I started to work for "Red" in 1965 the same day as he took office as the Investigator.
It was Betty Hempfling, Red, and myself...that day, Elsie Barning, State Representative at the time, came to the office and showed us how to get started...She had lots of experience at the Perry Twp. Trustee office also.
I stayed and worked for Red for 11 years before moving to East Tenn. to be near my oldest daughter and granddaughter....now I am back in Evansville....
The 3 of us really had a challenge at that office, but we all enjoyed our work of helping people and Red was the best about doing that and was thought highly of everyone that knew him.
He will be greatly missed and it sure will be hard to replace him...he was very dedicated to the Democratic party too...I am the only one of the "originals" that started that day in 1965 and was proud he was my boss!

“ My condolences to Red's family. He was truly an icon of Evansville & Vanderburgh County's political scene. Even though I am from the opposite end of the political spectrum, I enjoyed the times I met with him and my most recent work with on the consolidation issue. He will be greatly missed.###imported-begin###Richard A. Clements###imported-end##

“ I've known Red since the time I was little. The story goes that late one night my parents brought their group of friends over for breakfast, after a party. I just had to get up and investigate. Noticing Red, I started singing the tune to the "Mr. Clean" commercial, popular at the time.

Red asked (in his usual fast stammer) who I was talking about and I quickly answered, "Not Red!!" It was always a treat to visit his gas station, where he made to sure keep a supply of candy and snacks for all the neighborhood kids.

We will miss you, Mr. Clean.

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. The Mosby family has always been a part of our family's life. I've known Red my entire life and remember Daddy bringing us over to the house on Red Bank Road when the all of us were kids - I'll never forget that concrete donkey! For a while here, we saw Red and JoAnn and the boys as often as we saw aunts and uncles and cousins. I remember those memories fondly and remember Red as a sweetheart.##imported-begin##Jane Morrow Below##imported-end##

“ Red was and is very special person. One that was caring and had a helping hand for anyone that needed one.

We as a society could learn from the type of person Red was and the world would be a much better place to live in. He will be missed by so many.

His family has a lot to be proud of and such great memories.

I'm proud to have known him for the past twenty five years. Our prayers are with him and his family.##imported-begin##Dean and Candy Boerste##imported-end##

“ To the Mosby family: We will all remember "cuz" He was special person. Kind, loving husband, and father. He knew when he was correct. He wouldn't change his mind. You had better got out vote no matter what, and it better be Deomcract. I remember when I played music for his parties he always wanted to sing Just Because. Jim Neighbors would call he up to sing, he just smiled so big. We had a lot of Walkers and Coke together. May God bless and confort you. We will be praying for your family.

“ My prayers are offered up to a loving God to provide you with strength for the days that are ahead. Know that you were blessed by God to have had such a remarkable man in your life. His influence and generosity aided many people in Evansville. He is already missed by so many of your friends and community leaders.

Thank you for your unselfish sacrifice of sharing your father with so many. He has gone where we know that he will find rest, peace, and joy.##imported-begin##Rev. Floyd Edwards, Sr.##imported-end##
