“ Momma taught us so much about family and life. She was a strong woman. Her beauty was both inside and out. Her life was built around her love of God. She is now in heaven and reunited with her loved ones who passed before her. I will miss her greatly. Love you, momma. Lana "Di"

“ Aunt Wootsie, there is so much I could say about you. The most important being you have always been like a second Mother to me. I will always love you and surely will miss you. Give Daddy hugs for me and make sure you use that hair brush on his behind for old times sake. I love you so much 💕💕

“ When I think of Olga, I think of her contagious smile and sunny disposition. I always considered her to be a classy lady, dressed beautifully. She is enjoying Heaven right now, so well deserved. We will see you again, Olga.

“ Granny's smile....and her hugs....were the most sincere hugs ever. When she smiled or laughed you could just see the love beaming from her eyes!
I know granpa was waiting for you and got one of those smiles. I love you granny. More than words can say. ~ Robin ~ granddaughter

“ Granny was not known for her driving skills. Haha. And granpa always took care of putting gas in her car. Well one summer when I went to visit, there wasn't much gas in her car. Granpa was at work. But she HAD to go to the store RIGHT NOW. Granny was very strong willed! So we went to the store. On the way home her car ran out of gas ON THE RAILROAD TRACKS by her house. I was scared but she was calm as a cucumber. Waved somebody down and they pushed the car off ! She got what she needed.! HAHAHA
