“ *Hello,
I remember Joe loved to go fishing. He would soak a large patch of grass with water. When it was dark, we would go outside with flashlights and catch night crawlers to use as bait. He taught me to bait my own hook, and take the fish off the line. Dad always made me wear that smelly old orange vest.
I learned how to play Poker by watching Dad and other family members play down at the river camp. We enjoyed simple games such as washers and horse shoes. The taste of Grandma's vegetable soup, cat fish, hush puppies and beer (Ski for me!) I remember the sound of Cicadas, Crickets, and at night, the starry sky and lightening bugs in a jar.*
