

Patricia T. Blair

April 30, 1929 - November 25, 2020

Patricia T. "Pat" Blair, 91, of Princeton, IN passed away Wednesday, November 25, 2020 at Deaconess Hospital Midtown Campus.

Pat was born April 30, 1929 in Mt. Vernon, IN to the late Henry and Catherine (Kirchoff) Wolf. She worked for Mid States Rubber Company for 41 years before retiring. Pat was very active; she enjoyed gardening and feeding the wild animals on her property. She was a member of the Howell State Championship softball team in 1950 and earned 2nd place in bowling in the Senior Olympics in Baton Rouge, LA. She also played in the women's professional baseball league that the movie "A League of Their Own" was based on.

Surviving Pat are a sister, Mary Ann Robbiano of Menlo Park, CA and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Pat was preceded in death by five brothers, Ben, Sylvester, Herman, Phil and Eddie Wolf.

Due to the pandemic, visitation and funeral services will be private. Burial will take place in the St. Philip Church Cemetery.

Pat's family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff of Premier

Healthcare in New Harmony for the kind and compassionate care given to Pat during her time there.

Memorial contributions may be made to the St. Jude Children's Hospital, c/o Memorial Giving, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Condolences may be made online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

Cemetery Details

St. Philip Church Cemetery

3500 S. St. Philip Road
Mt. Vernon, IN

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia T. Blair

January 16, 2023 at 06:53 PM

“ So extremely sad about this. Aunt Pat was an incredible women who opened her home to us going up. I learned so much from her about how hard farm life was. Like how to make sure you toss the chicken feed far so that you don't get attacked, how goats are mean creatures, and pigs can be indoor pets. I will miss this crazy German lady so much.

Patty Vanoven - November 26, 2020 at 06:19 PM