I worked next to Pat for several years at ONB. She was a smart, friendly, and funny lady. I will always have fond memories of her and some of her little quips: If you don't use your head, you have to use your feet; Sunny Beach!

“ *Jerry & Annie & Family,
We are sorry for your loss. Nothing but fond memories of Aunt Pat.
Margie & I are still leery of going into church and funeral homes, so we missed seeing you.

Jerry, you know I was in your mother's wedding. (at age six) I have always felt she was loving, funny, smart and so willing to share her love with us all. May you be comforted in your sorrow!!

“ Jerry,
I have one of your mom’s music boxes. It plays “You Light Up My Life!” which your mom certainly did. She was always my favorite aunt. When I heard your mom had joined your dad in heaven I could hear you dad using one of his favorite multiple syllable words followed by “Pat, what are you doing here?” when she came in through the pearly gates. Thoughts and many prayers for all of you.
Love,
