“ Dear, dear Lehman Family,

I am heartsick to hear of Paul's passing. Looking at his photo and his kind eyes, the years melt away and I'm back with him on Mesker Park Drive. We'd run between the houses, pick plums from those little trees in the Lehman backyard, and stay out of Mr. Lutz's yard by walking on that concrete wall. He was my first best friend!

At Mater Dei, he was a talented artist and I'm so happy that he pursued that throughout his life.

Please take comfort in knowing that Paul touched so many in his life and his influence will live on in their kind deeds.

My heartfelt condolences and sympathy are with you at this difficult time.

Love,

Barbara##imported-begin##Barbara Laib Simonson##imported-end##
