“ *Paula was one of the sweetest, funniest and best persons I have ever met.
Exactly 3 weeks, prior to her passing, she came to Dallas to visit her sister, Tracy Lynn, and we had a simply wonderful night out for dinner at a fine Lobster restaurant. It was truly a pleasure to be in her preense!! She was kiddy, funny and eat so many of the ohrdorves she only ordered a salad as an ontre....what a cheap date!! I too will miss her dearly!! “ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also says that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Stephanie Reyes##imported-end##

“ My prayers will continue for Paula's family. For 18 years, Paula has been my hair dresser, my confidant and my friend. She was there to listen, encourage and uplift. Mason, I remember when she found out that you were on the way. She was always so proud of you. She used to say, "that kid cracks me up." When they say that "your hair dresser knows more than anyone" they are right I will miss her contagious smile. Paula told me once that she wasn't worried about the future, because she knew where she was going, she just wanted to know that all her friends and family knew where they were going also. Paula, luv ya girl, you made a difference in my life for the better. Tammie##imported-begin##Tammie Tuley##imported-end##

“ I remember the first time I met Paula at her sister Tracy's house. I thought my gosh, these are two of the most gorgeous women I have seen in my life. Stunning smiles and both with a laugh that would fill a room. Since then, I had gotten to know Paula much better and found out she had an even more beautiful soul. More importantly what a warrior she was. She told me so many times, "I am going to keep on battling this cancer because I want to be here for Mason." She never ended a conversation without telling me she loved me and that she was never going to stop fighting. She was a kind, warm, witty lady with a positive attitude like no other. I am going to miss our talks, but I will always know that she is up there watching over us all. Heaven got a little brighter when Paula arrived. My thoughts and prayers are with Paula's family.##imported-begin##Nan Waters##imported-end##

“ Oh Carol,
I am so sooo sorry for your loss!

I never met your daughter in person because of "our distance" between us, but, knowing and have met you, I know she must have been a wonderful person like you, her Mother.

She was a beautiful lady. This is so sad, with tears in my eyes, only trying to imagine what your going through, and the loss the family must feel.

This is such a beautiful idea that this funeral home has done..What a way to share with long distant friends. Thank you!

We shall talk soon.

Bless your heart honey. I'm so sorry Carol, it shouldn't happen this way. Kids are suppose to outlive their parents.

I will call you when I get back in town from El Paso..leaving in two days (Sunday) Oct 2nd, for a 2 week visit to see grandsons and family there.

If you need to talk at all Carol, please call me there...or on my cell. You have my number of my cell.

My prayers and thoughts are there with you..

*God Bless You !
Sandy*

Love you..I wish I could be there to maybe help comfort you, during this sad time in your live.##imported-begin## sandy cooney##imported-end##

“ Mason you was blessed with an amazing Mother. I have only known her for about six years and feel blessed by God to have crossed paths with her. We always talked about her and myself having a beach house in heaven instead of mansion. She is definitely there now. Waiting for friends and family to join in time. Please Mason, keep God in your life with you and you will always be safe and happy. with lots of love to you, Mason!!###imported-begin##Annette Payne###imported-end##

“ Lifting this family up in prayer. To lose such a precious person is so difficult and we never understand it. When we join her in Heaven we won't even want to ask why because we will be sharing the joy that she is surrounded with today. Vic hold on, Mason stand strong and bask in your Mama's love. Carol I know your pain. Dad I know your loss, sisters and brother I know...we never think we will lose a child. All of you have the right to grieve in your own way. Don't allow anyone to tell you how, when, where to grieve or when it is time to move on. Grief doesn't really have a time-table. We are earth bound and you have lost a precious loved one, we know she is with God but our human nature wanted her to stay with us. That's ok. The hole in your heart will always be there but I promise it will get better and will fill with sweet, sweet memories. Love & Prayers to all.##imported-begin##Marilyn Wood##imported-end##
