“ Dear Children of Polly & Jesse: So sorry to hear of Polly's passing. Have been in touch with her occasionally the past few years and I worked for Jesse at International Steel when I was 18 to 21 -- several years ago (started working there in 1957 -- and Jesse was so kind to me. He often talked about all his children--kind of took this little gal under his wing, too. I appreciated and loved both your parents. Polly, also, talked about all of you and the grandchildren and going to visit with you. I think of her often and hoped to get over to Evansville to visit her but never did. She came to Fairfield for Gloria Baumann's funeral a few years ago and brought another lady who had also gone to school with the Baumanns. We had lunch together and a very nice visit after the funeral. Remembering both of them with good and happy thoughts, Beverly Dilges, Fairfield, Il.##imported-begin##Beverly (Stovall) Dilges##imported-end##
