“ Peggy was truly so giving, and one who gave gentle encouragement and guidance to everyone she encountered. Never one to complain, she always put her confidence in Christ. She deeply blessed me when I was part of the women's Bible Study she led last summer at Bluegrass. Trusting she's with Jesus, and is marveling at the beauty surrounding her now in eternity!##imported-begin##Katrina Starnes##imported-end##

“ Peggy's gifts were a sacrifice for her, but she gave so willingly. In contrast to the rest of the world, Peggy would give all she had to live on. She was truly an example to me. I admire her so much, and she taught me so much.##imported-begin##Eadye Simpson##imported-end##

“ Though many miles and many years separate us from our home in McCutchanville, we will always remember with great fondness, Peggy Nicholson, as she was known to us. I suppose I was about 3 years old when we first met. My brother, Bill, was about 7, and we began our youth in that church along side with Peggy. She was always kind and caring, and we loved her as children. My mother, Maude Felker, now 96, sends her regards to the family, also. She worked for many years along side of Peggy in many endeavors in the church. I know Peggy will be missed by her family and friends, and our hearts go out to them. She was a special lady.###imported-begin###Carole Felker McDonald###imported-end##
