“ Dear Uncle Ray,

Such happy memories of you taking us ice skating at Bowditch Field as kids. So many more happy times when you and Aunt Ellie joined us for many years at Thanksgiving or Christmas. I always looked forward to your graceful, kindly, and effervescent presence along with words-of-wisdom you shared throughout the years.

Nothing is so strong as gentleness, and nothing is so gentle as true strength – that is how I will always remember you – as a true hero and remarkable family man. May you be at peace with the angels in heaven above, and continue to shine upon us.

*Your Loving Niece,
Patti*
