“ *Becky was one of my favorite clients! She was so fiesty and onry at times. But that was her way of showing she cares more then some people thought! Becky was so calm and caring and very compationate! She never only thought of herself but her peers and us as care givers. She was beautiful in her own becky way! I still to this day say some of the phrases she has said to me. Because it was becky! One of my favorites for some reason was "ohh go suck an egg".. She was the light of my day somedays! Always loved when we did nails and had talks about life and her family! She had such a beautiful soul! And im so happy to have met her and been apart of her life!
Im so sorry for your loss! She was amazing in so many ways!!*
