“ We were out of town and heard of Becky's death. We were so surprised as we were not aware she had been sick. We have known her as friend and client. She will be missed, but are glad to have the good memories of her.##imported-begin##C Larry & Debbie Rhodes##imported-end##

“ Dear Stephanie, Your mom was my aunt, but really more like a cousin as she was only one year older than I. When we were kids, dad (Becky's oldest brother by some 27 years) would pile all of us into the car and we would drive out to see Grandma, Grandpa, and Becky. We'd sit around in Becky's room and play old "45s" on here record player - the most memorable song being "Tell Laura I love her". Other times, we'd play "jacks" out in the back yard, or watch Grandpa make homemade ice cream in the garage. When I was in High School, I dated a Rex Mundi girl, and so I'd bump into Becky and her friends regularly.

Your mom always treated me very well, and she was truly a sweet person. I did not know she was ill, and so her death comes as somewhat of a shock. The last time I saw Becky, was a couple years ago when I was visiting my mom in Evansville and we were taking mom to her favorite E-ville breakfast spot - the Cracker Barrel out on the East side. It was always nice seeing your mom, and that occasion was no different. She lives on in our hearts.

“ Dear Stefanie and family,
I am so sorry to hear of your Mother's illness and death. Becky & I worked together for several years at Deaconess and I always admired her. She had a wonderful attitude, was a hard worker and had a good word for everyone. She was especially proud of you, Stefanie, and I heard lots of good things about you through the years. One thing I especially remember is that when I was trying to learn all the girls in the department, I made notes about each one. Beside your Mom's name I remember writing "pretty". She was pretty on the outside, which none of us has control over, but more importantly, she was pretty on the inside, which is most important. My sincere sympathy to you. I know this is incredibly difficult. In time to come, you will remember the good times and have many wonderful memories to cherish.##imported-begin##Vera Cleek##imported-end##
