“ Dear Lisa, Eric, Kevin and families, I just became aware of Dick's passing. I am so sorry for your loss. I know that you were all close to your father and that he was so blessed by his love for you. Dick loved nothing more than to speak of his family, he was so proud of you all. Nothing brought him more joy! I loved knowing and working with him on a near daily basis for eleven years. He was a blessing to me and my daughter Katie every time we showed up at a jobsite and he was there. Katie loved nothing better than a good teasing and Dick was always happy to oblige. He had a soft spot for her and she appreciated that. Dick was appreciative of his life with such a loving family. No one could have made him happier than you all did.
