“ Oh uncle i can't believe you left us behind the day we lost you i cried. Cause you was one of a kind. To know you was to love you.. Your only fault was you looked to much like your older brother Bob. Memories with yall always on my mind.. Can't believe i lost my farting partner.. My heart hurt for the ones you left behind.. I will never forget you Uncle Dick.... Wow i could imagine to the day you left

Your reunion in Heaven was amazing. Rest easy you crazy man i miss ya like crazy but not enough as the ones that loves you daily.. The only comfort is to know your home Richard we are left to morn ya.. Tell my dad i love him .. Hug him for me.. Rip

“ Richard was the best protector. He was the funniest when I didn't wanna smile. He showed a side to him that was filled with laughter, love, and ho esty. My kids and I ALWAYS had a man to depend on,even when he didn't hafta. I'll miss smelling the coffee from Rosie's dinner at 430 am...knowing THAT was his cooking lesson....flip the switch, all by hisself....much love to you and your family, from Tina Thompson.

Richard was a 10 month old baby when he lost his mother. He had no remembrance of her but I know she love him. He has a sister, me, that loved him very much. His passing is going to be hard on his wife, sons and many sisters that loved him. I want to say to all, That God's love is the best love. Trust Jesus to help you through this. I miss knowing Richard is not here, but he's in our hearts. ❤️
