“ For the last 6 years, I've had the privilege to spend many hours with Bob, either playing rummy, having lunch, or watching YouTube videos, his favorite being Andre Rieu. He would sit in the garage on beautiful days and the neighbors would sit and talk with him. He loved that, and the Green Bay Packers, his dog Red, and having lunch with Lindy. I loved him very much and will miss this amazing human.

“ I loved Uncle Bob so much. He was always quick to laugh and was such a good listener. His heart was huge and his devotion to his beautiful wife, Ginny, and his three wonderful children was unwavering. I adored him with all my heart and, though I'll miss him, I know his folks, his wife, his sister and mine are happy to have him. Xo
