“ Only met Rob a couple times while with his son Rob. Truly a great person and family environment that he created. Heard lots about him over the years, an avid runner, amazing family values and beloved by his friends. He truly made his mark on this world. Truly feel sad for his entire family.

“ Rob, Greg, Mary Kay, Delaine and I were very saddened to read about Bob*s death. My memories of Bob are of him as a loving family man. He always was friendly and cheerful , whether it was cutting his mom*s grass , at family gatherings and of course at Weinzapfel*s Tavern. Greg used to love to share stories about his glory days wrestling at Mater Dei and the after victory parties in his back yard, I*m sure Bob was in the middle of it all. I regret that we won*t be able to express our sympathies in person. Brian Foote
