“ Aunt Martha. I have so many memories of Uncle Bob, and as I'm looking at these pictures I am seeing him holding my daughter Ashley who turns 33 tomorrow, and me and my so Donovan dancing at your wedding. I remember his sense of humor and always being kind. I know we all got busy with life and I ended up raising 3 kids alone, 2 heart surgeries, and still trying to work 2 and 3 jobs at a time. I wish we would have made more time. But isn't that always the way. I remember he came to my kids' birthdays. And no other aunts or uncles did that. I loved him and I'm sure he loved me back. I'm so sorry for your loss Martha.
