“ I only had the pleasure of knowing Bob a short time when he and Pat came to Sunday mass. I will always remember his sense of humor that reflected his outlook on life. I pray that, when it is my time for the Lord to take me, I can go as gracefully. His love for Pat always shined through. I know he is with Jesus.

“ Met Bob in high school and enjoyed his company when he and I were together. He married a friend and classmate of ours, Pat Grannan. Bob was a distinguished member of the MD'60 BoyZ( 1960 classmates who went to lunch on Wednesdays). Had a lot of fun with Bob and will miss him on Wednesdays. PAX TECUM, Bob! Vaya con Dios, mi Amigo! “ Dad, you were the best Dad any girl could have asked for. A man of few words, yet loved beyond words, with his actions and care. We never needed anything, and knew YOU were always there and would take care of us. I LOVE YOU, and we all will be together again some day❤️
