“ *My dad and I drove for Greyhound and drove into Evansville during the middle of the night.
We always look forward to talking to Bob during our 3-hour layover in Evansville
Rest in peace my friend*

“ For over 30 years, Bob Moore was part of a family of several men who worked for and ran every aspect of the Greyhound Bus station at NW 3rd and Sycamore in Evansville. They shared a kinship and bond that one rarely finds in the business world today. Bob was a brother to our father, Jim Shipp and our uncle Don Shipp...three Patoka guys who, along with several others from their era, were as integral to Greyhound in Evansville as the bricks and mortar (and neon) of the building itself. He was a faithful, loyal friend to our family. He could regale folks with tales about the mostly funny and sometimes touching goings on that took place daily in the terminal in an era when interstate bus travel was a major industry in our country. The Shipp family always had the utmost respect for Bob, and we send our condolences to all of Bob's family and friends.

Thank you for that. Jim and Don were awesome. It was always like they were my uncles when I went down to see dad at work. All the Greybound guys were nice.
