“ Bob was like a father to me even though he was just me step dad. He had the greatest sense of humor , He was always there for me throughout the years whenever I needed help with anything. .I'm so grateful that I got to spend the time that I did helping take care of him these past few weeks . Bob will truly be missed not just by me but by everyone that knew him.

“ I have so many but the most recent memory was about 5 days ago. Bob is my stepdad. I had been spending the night, and most days at my mom and Bob’s house, along with my sister, as Bob’s caregiver and also support for my mom. I had just gotten him into bed, gave him a kiss on his forehead, and told him I loved him like I do every night. As I turned to leave he started crying and held out his hand. I held his hand as I sat on the edge of the bed, and I cried with him. As I stood up, he held up both arms for a hug, and as I hugged him, he was crying, and he said “ I love you almost as much as I love your mom, but I love you as a daughter.” I will always cherish those words and keep them close to my heart.
