“ My memories of Rodger are funny, kind and even a little stinky! He taught me how to play football, and allowed me to play center field in baseball. Actually I was the ball retriever. We played clabber because if you are a Cox you had to play Clabber. Jane Ann I wish I was close enough to give you a hug. You and Rodger were a pretty perfect fit. We all had our good, bad and ugly days but you two were a rock. Prayers and love to you all. Susie

“ As the spouse of a classmate, you became part of the class celebrations. My husband didn't know any one, but you made him fell so welcome.
You were the love of Jane Ann's life and I always appreciated the smile that would come on her face when she mentioned your name.
My sympathy to the entire family.
