“ *I am so disheartened to hear about this. Just like his picture, he was always smiling.
Rodney always came in to our office at The Heart Group (deaconess) to check on our building for issues, and always came by to say Hi. He was always fun to talk to and always joking around with us. He was a bright light the days that he stopped in. When we were moved to gateway, he was one of the people that we missed alot. So sorry for your family. BJ*

“ Dear daughters, My name is Susie Woosley. My husband Russ Woosley was a good friend of your Dad. He also went to Bosse, '69. Also Russ's sister Jennifer was a good friend of your Aunt Terri in their teenage days. I lost my Russ last year to leukemia, Rodney came to the funeral home to see me. I could see he was not in the best health that day, it was so wonderful for him to come though. We would see your Dad from time to time and always enjoyed catching up, having a beer.
I wish you peace and love, Susie
