“ I was sorry to have to learn of Ron's passing by way of the internet. It was a year ago so not sure if this will get to the family. I am the last cousin on his father's side. My parents were Joe and Beulah Goebel.

“ I worked with Ron at United Bank for several years. He would always greet me each day and also let me know that the St. Louis Cardinals had won or how much he enjoyed watching my Chicago Cubs lose. I really enjoyed our back and forth! He was a really good guy and he will be missed. My condolences to his family. Dirk Danks

“ I send my sincere sympathy to Ron's family. I remember him from our Mater Dei Class of 1955 and it's sad to see another one gone. Our numbers are dwindling, but we're all getting old. I remember Ron as a nice, quiet guy, but I was quiet, too. May your happy memories sustain you through this most difficult time. May God's peace be with all of you!

“ Ron always started my day off good when we worked at United Bank. Being a Chicago Cubs fan I always enjoyed razing Ron about his beloved Cardinals! It was always in good fun and we always had a good laugh at each other's expense. He was a good guy and I'll always remember our laughs together. Joe Suding

Ron preceded me in the Adoration Chapel so I was able to enjoy his humor and a small part of his life on a fairly regular basis. He shared he didn't know why he was still around but believed God had a reason. For a while now he would take an extra hour of adoration each week. His faith in God and trust in His care were truly evident. Rest in peace, Ron. Condolences to family. He and Linda will be together again.
