“ Doretha - My deepest sympathy to you and your family. I have many memories of Ronnie from our days at Scott School. I enjoyed visiting with you and Ron at our last class reunion. Memories are a wonderful thing. I encourage you to cling to those you have of your years together with Ron. My God give you comfort during this time.##imported-begin##Nancy Coomer Huff##imported-end##

“ I grew up with Ronnie in Inglefield. He, my sisters, Kathleen and Marsha, and I roamed the neighborhood, played baseball, football, and kick the can. Ronnie was a true and loyal friend and all around good guy. He was the brother we never had. In my memory he remains forever young. I miss him.

Condolences and deepest sympathy to his family on their loss.##imported-begin##Susan (Kroener) Coulter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the Ron's family. I graduated from Scott Township Grade School with Ron (we all knew him as Ronnie). I always wanted to be on Ronnie's side when we chose up sides for football, basketball and softball. Ron was a good friend. I will miss not seeing him at our next Scott reunion.##imported-begin##Herb Boulter##imported-end##
