“ Rosa was my mom’s best friend since high school, and by proxy an aunt to me. She has been a rock for me through all these years when I needed someone to confide and talk to. I’ve known her my whole life, so losing her has been the most painful thing this week. I just spoke to her the day before, so getting the news the next day literally took the air out of my lungs. Rosa, thank you for being more than just an aunt but like a mother to me. Thank you for being my safe space. My heart is completely shattered but I know you are no longer in pain. Love you so much. 💜
