“ I send sympathy on behalf of the Bradleys who were Selzer Road neighbors, classmates and friends of the family of Rose Marie, especially Diana and Dorothy. I am Margaret ("Nan") the oldest girl, and between Diana and Dorothy in age. My brother, Tim, and Diana were classmates and I remember Rose Marie and Diana often giving Tim a ride to dances at St. Marys and to ballgames. My sister, Jan, and Dorothy were classmates and although Jan now lives in Indianapolis and is not here to speak for herself, I know she has fond memories of Rose Marie as her Girl Scout leader.

I did not know Danny because he was younger. I have had the pleasure of talking to Diana lately because she and her husband were such good friends of our mutual dear friend, Randa Freimiller, who died a few years ago. I will always appreciate that Diana and her husband were there for Randa in every way.

Blessings to Mr. Owens and the children. I will certainly keep Rose Marie in my prayers.

*Sincerely,
Margaret Bradley Angermeier*
