

Rosemary Greenfield

April 18, 1920 - May 6, 2008

Rosemary Greenfield, 88, a lifelong resident of Evansville and beloved wife of the late William Leary (Larry) Greenfield, passed away on May 6, 2008 at St. Mary's Medical Center. She was born Rosemary Weil and was one of eight children to William and Emma Weil. After graduating from Memorial High School, she was employed by Mead Johnson and Company until her marriage to Larry, the love of her life, on January 17, 1941. They had six children all of whom survive and were at her bedside when she passed away.

Larry and Rosemary owned and operated A&B Auto Parts on Evansville's Westside until Larry's death on August 11, 1966. Thereafter the family business was operated by Michael Greenfield, their oldest son. Rosemary enjoyed attending classes at the University of Evansville. She was a supporter of numerous charities with a strong belief in the Catholic faith. Rosemary was a member of the former Assumption Cathedral, St. Boniface Catholic Church and most recently St. Philip Catholic Church. Her lifelong devotion to her children and grandchildren exemplified her commitment to family.

Survivors include children, Michael Greenfield and wife, Sallie, Dennis Greenfield and wife, Krista, Emma Leraris and husband, Danny, Michele Greenfield, all of Evansville, Mary Millsaps and husband, Ralph of Newburgh and Donna Hess and husband, John, of Indianapolis; grandchildren, Sean Greenfield, Anne Marie Greenfield, Emily Greenfield, Jessica Greenfield, Hannah Greenfield, Jennifer Hess Nesbit, Christine Leraris, Eric Millsaps, Evan Millsaps, Erin Millsaps and Rosemary's sister, Dottie Faulkner of Tell City, Indiana.

Funeral services will begin at 10:00 A.M. Saturday, May 10, 2008 at St. Philip Catholic Church, Revs. Jack Durchholz and Ted Tempel officiating. Burial will follow in St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 2:00 until 8:00 P.M. Friday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street where a Scripture service will be held at 4:00 P.M. officiated by Father Ted Tempel.

Friends may also visit with the family from 9:30 A.M. until service time Saturday at St. Philip Catholic Church, 3500 S. St. Philip Road, Mt. Vernon, IN 47620.

“ In tribute to Aunt Rosemary, we remember the hospitality she showed us when we would pass through Evansville. We always felt welcome and she was most gracious to our kids. Later on when they were not kids anymore, she always asked about them. She was always a lively and caring person.

Our condolences to the whole family.###imported-begin##John and Carol Miller###imported-end##

“ I just wanted to leave my deepest sympathies and heartfelt thoughts to the entire Greenfield family. Anne, Mike and Sally you guys are like a second family to me and always have been. You have always treated me like one of your own and I am so blessed to have you in my life! I am so sorry for the loss. I know how hard it is. I know your grandmother was a special lady and it helped me with my aunt to focus on the good times.. favorite memories and that we will meet them again!

i am praying and thinking of you all and please know i am there with you in spirit.

“ Dear Michelle:
I know I did not know your mother but by talking to you I feel like I knew your mother. I am so sorry about you loss. My prayers are with you and your family during this time of grief. Michelle I love you and call me if you need to talk. Give Ally a hug for me. I know your dog must miss your mother greatly since they were great buds when you were not at home but at work.

“ Dennis,

I was so sorry to hear of the passing of your mother. There are no words to make better the grief and sadness you feel. Focus on the happy times and be thankful for the many wonderful years of her life you were able to spend with her. My thoughts and deepest sympathy are with you and your family during this difficult time.

With fondest regards.
