“ Our family had the privilege of worshiping with Mr Wall at Howell General Baptist Church. He was continually filled with a joy in the Lord as he went through the exercises of life. He never wasted an opportunity to life the Lord's faithfulness us before us with his testimonies and answered prayers. He lives a faithful testimony of the Saviour and I am confident the kingdom of God grew with in him continually and into the world around and beyond Him. It is a faithful and worthy God we serve that never forsakes those who call upon Him. The joy remains in my heart remembering this man's face shining with the love of Chrst###imported-begin###johnny r berg###imported-end##

“ Joyce,
Betty (mcdurmon). Such a sad time to communicate with you. Haven't seen you in awhile but wanted you to know I was thinking about you. After all these years I think of you often. So sorry to hear about the passing of your husband. So sorry we couldn't pay our respect to you and the family. We didn't know your husband very well but I know he had to be wonderful just because he was married to you. The passing of a loved one is always so sad but he will be in a good place from now on. Our prayers are with you at this difficult time.

“ My fiancée and I met Mr. Wall while shopping a few years ago and chatted for quite a while when I recognized him as being one of the folks in a local "Christmas Carol" production from MANY years ago...and I wound up making him a copy which I still had.

What an extremely nice man!!

Our condolences to all of his friends and relatives.##imported-
