“ Mark and family, I am so sorry to hear this news about Sheri. We became good friends after working together at Sears. I will miss her infectious laugh, but I'm grateful she spent Christmas with Jesus. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Growing up, my cousin Sheri's father Ronnie Davis was a bigger than life character. To me he was a combination of James Dean and Elvis Presley. He exuded life! Sheri exuded that same energy and charisma!

My name is Mark Sunderman and Sheri is my cousin. The Sunderman kids used to love to visit Ronnie and Emma. We all loved Sheri. In old age I did not see her much. But I always looked forward to the family reunion so I could rekindle the flames of old memories with her.

Sheri, I will miss you. Anybody who knew you will miss you!

I love you,
Mark Sunderman

I am so sad to have lost my cousin Sheri. I haven't seen her much in recent years but when we were young it was a treat to visit Uncle Ronnie and Aunt Emma and Sheri and her little sisters. Sheri was fun and funny. Impossible not to enjoy her. She is loved and will be missed.
