Sis, we shared our lives from birth through our childhood, the births of our babies, marriages, and divorces and just living life day to day. We were carried away from one another like a tidal wave at times, but our sisterly bond was always there. I know you nodded yes when I asked if you were ready to be with your family in heaven. You were so talented and gifted in the arts and now you are free. I know your spirit is still with us...I will hold in my heart our exchange of "I love you" to one another before you passed. A sister's love is unbreakable forever. Rest In Peace Sherry Lynn. I will see you again...

“Sherry and I met as young girls in church. We became forever friends. Sherry was full of love and kindness and being in her presence, made you want to be a better person. Sherry was beautiful and talented and our world was a better place to be, because she was in it. I will see you again my friend.

The angels looked down from heaven one night, they searched for miles afar, and deep within the distance they could see a shining star.

They knew that very instant that the star was theirs to gain, So they took you up to heaven, forever to remain.

You'll always be within my heart, until we meet again.

Your friend,

Belinda "Baggett" DeVillez

“ Our hearts are sadden to hear of Sherry's passing. I know her suffering is over and that she is in God's loving care. We never knew each other until later in life. I always enjoyed talking with her and sharing stories and catching up with her about the Johnson family. Our thoughts and prayers are sent with love to Sherry's children, family and friends during this difficult time. I'm sorry that we can't be there for you because of the resent passing of my brother Bryan from a battle with ALS. Hopefully we can see you all again sometime soon. Take care and God Bless you all.

Love, Fred & Annie Johnson

“ I met my beautiful friend 30 years ago. We met in St. Mary's hospital when our babies were born about 5 mins apart. We chatted, laughed, and bonded when they wanted us resting. An instant friendship! We were the same age and heck, our names were even spelled the same except she Sherry Lynn and I, Sherry Ann!! We stayed close for years and even met on April 8 to celebrate our kids birthdays.

Life got hectic and we drifted apart. However, never did our day ever go by without me thinking of her.

Thankfully, we found each other on face book and were reunited. Sherry never ceased to amaze me. Even through all of her suffering, she never lost her faith in God and kept her positive, beautiful attitude. We never ended a conversation without saying I love you.

I love you Sherry and TREASURE our memories. I will see you again my friend and we will dance!!

“ I remember her sweet voice with a personality to match. It seems she has been calling cousins when they needed her most. I talked to her about 3 years ago and sure wish I could talk to her now. I will remember her words of encouragement (yes, I should have been encouraging her) at the time. How on earth she knew I needed them I will never know. Love you cuz! You will always have a special place in my heart!

“ Sherry will be greatly missed, but we will see her again one day. She was so full of life, even in the midst of her pain she thought of others before herself. One of a kind, irreplaceable, and beautiful in every way. Oh how the crowd in heaven must have cheered when she made her grand arrival! How they must have rejoiced that such a sweet and wonderful person made her entrance on the arm of Jesus. I will miss you, darling, but we will meet again. I have and always will love you.
