“ I would recognize that beautiful smile anywhere. Our families lived close to each other when we were young, close to Stewartsville, In, in a small community known as Pumpkin Run. My parents were Larkin and Mary Almon. I remember all the family well, my deepest sympathy to all, I just turned 82, and so sad to see so many of my old friends leaving this earth , yet know hey are in a better place. God Bless all of you, let Him wrap his arms around you and help you through this loss you.all are sharing.
