“ I apologize that it took so long but I just found out recently because I moved to Louisville. And I was stunned when I found out because he meant a lot to me.

He was great to work with at Qualex and was even better to umpire with when we worked softball games for Evansville Parks & Recreation. I busted my tail for him when he managed the Qualex teams and he flat out gave me EVERYTHING when I was the Qualex manager. I miss you, Stan. The good news is that you're in a Better Place. May Jesus Christ be with you in His Loving Arms for all Eternity. Thank you for reading. T. Drew Hardin
