“ *Like a bird singing in the rain, let grateful memories survive in time of sorrow.
May God bless the family in this time of sadness.
I remember Steve from when I was a young child and the family lived down the road. I road the bus together with Mark to St. Boniface.*

“ *I was so very sorry to hear of Steve's passing. I enjoyed working with him at the Airport over the years. It seemed like every year when I came back, he had added yet another computer hard drive and/or monitor to his office space. He was a computer guru and always up to date on the latest Windows version. Although a bit of a procrastinator at times, he was a smart and funny man and loved to tell stories and corny jokes. I never heard him complain about his various health issues. I will always remember Steve with a smile. Somewhere I have a picture of him with his fake Elvis sideburns...
Rest in peace Steve.*

“ I was sorry to hear of Stephen's passing. I only knew him for a very short time in the 70's. But I remember him as funny, smart and always kind.
