

Stephen Ray Webb

January 6, 1950 - August 11, 2023

Stephen Ray Webb, 73, passed away in Evansville, Indiana surrounded by loving family on Friday, August 11, 2023. He was born to Cecil and Audrey Webb on January 6, 1950, in Anna, Illinois. Steve is survived by the love of his life, Barbara, his daughter Jessica, sisters Lynda and Jayne, and grandchildren Erika, Stefanie, Dylan, and Faith. He is also survived by his loving family, aunt, uncle, cousins, nieces and nephews. Steve was predeceased by his daughter Shannon in September of 2022.

A man who lived the majority of his life on the road as a semi-truck operator, bus driver and race car hauler, Steve drove the entirety of the continental US. Not only did he live in Illinois and Indiana, he spent parts of his life living in Florida, California, and Washington. He loved to sing, cook, and watch NASCAR in the comfort of his home. Steve was an avid dog lover, owning many breeds throughout his life. Though he was often quiet, he enjoyed his family and being surrounded by their exuberant personalities.

After a year-long battle with esophageal cancer, he unfortunately succumbed to his illness. Though he had many bad days this last year, he spent a lot of great days doing one of the things he loved most, gambling. His family will miss him dearly but find comfort knowing he is now at rest and reunited with his daughter, parents, grandparents, and the many dogs he cherished throughout his life.

Memorial services will be held in Indiana and California.
