“ You were my favorite Uncle! When I was really little I nicknamed you "The Gentle Giant" since you were so very tall to me! I remember all the times dad and I took you with us to the breakfast at "Twin Towers" and while we were walking into the building to eat you always said "These bones aren't long for this world!" Syl you lived longer than you thought you would! You lived longer than my dad and he was your youngest brother. I will always remember your gentle nature and smile! You were a true gentle man , patriot, and family member, and my favorite Uncle! RIP Uncle Syl!###imported-begin##Tom (Tiger) Muensterman###imported-end##
