“ Tommy and I met in 1960 @ Corpus Christi grade school. He taught me how to ride a bike. We were born on the same day in 1954 @ Saint Mary's Hospital on First Avenue and our Moms met each other on the postpartum ward.

Tom and I used to play Clabber together @ Mater Dei. I was with Tom there when his father died. That was a sad day and today is another sad day.

זכרונו לברכה May his Memory be a Blessing.

“ We knew Tom mostly through Sheila because I worked with her. Also they lived behind us. Good neighbor and great person

“ Tom and I went to Corpus Christi together and we both lived in Western Terrace so we were together a lot. Tom had the sweetest smile ever. I am saddened by our loss. Rest In Peace Tom💙

“ The world is a little dimmer without Tom Kissinger. He was quiet and serious most of the time, but his wife Sheila could usually get a smile from him. He also loved to joke around with his brothers and Uncle Butch. I remember them insulting each other with so much creativity and love, huge smiles on all their faces. I like to think he is joking around with Alan, Hazel is rolling her eyes at them, and Sheila is looking on with a smile and love in her eyes. Godspeed, Tom.

“ I met Tom when he started dating my sister Sheila. I always thought he was a great guy and my sister was in love with him. They got married. He was like a brother to me. He would do anything for my sister. I will miss Tom so much, he can go be with Sheila now. He was a awesome story teller of things that happened thru his life. I loved them and laughed so much. A great guy. Miss him a lot.

Love you Tom

“ My brother Michael and Tommy were good friends and I would tag along sometimes. Also, Tommy was there at the Led Zepplin concert at Roberts Stadium in April 1970. My brother George and I went to that concert as well, although Tommy went separately from us. I didn't even realize this until I saw his comment on the LZ 1970 Tour web site! I thought that was cool that he was there in the crowd! My sympathies to Ralph and the rest of Tommie's family.
