“ Although it has been many years since I have seen or spoken with Tim, I am filled with much sadness for this loss. I remember Tim with the ever-present smile, the warm manner in which he greeted people, and what I saw as a gentle soul. I enjoyed our conversations, his humor, and his unabashed eagerness to please all people. I truly admired his ways. He was a good man. The void left by his passing can not be filled.

I wish to express my sincerest condolences to Pam as well as family left behind. Pam, you are in my heart and prayers.

“ I worked building maintenance with Tim for 2 years. One day a row of 26- 7' tall cubical walls forced me backward, pinning me by the neck against a wall. The weight not allowing a breath. Tim rushed over and crawled under the pile and stood to his feet with it. Freeing me, I remember in my dellerious state hearing him say, "you might want to take this opportunity to get out of there." We could not believe what had happened. Others tried to repeat Tim's Olympic feat of strength, but could not, doubting our reported account. I was the witness. Slim Tim saved my life. Thanks Hillbilly! (He'd say, you're the Hillbilly.. Nu uh, Uh huh...shut up Hamby. lol)

I do remember that story! How you couldn't believe the strength he had. Tim was very strong and he would've done it again for anyone, especially hillbilly! Thank you for the memory.
