“ Greg & Paul,

We are sorry to hear about Verna. We certainly know that she is better off now, but we also know that you two will miss her terribly. Steven's first memory of Verna was the first time he was a reader at St. Mark's and he was sitting in the front row and Paul and Verna came in and sat down behind him and in reading the bulletin, Verna turned to Paul and said "Steven Renner, who is Steven Renner?" It was hard for him not to turn around and introduce himself...instead he just smiled. We will miss her smiling face and always being helpful either at St. Mark's or at the booth at the Fall Festival. May God grant you peace through the sure and certain hope in the Resurrection.##imported-begin##Steven Renner & Sean Patrick##imported-end##

“ I had and still hold to my heart so many family memories with Aunt Vern. I will never forget the times that Aunt Vern and Grandma Rayl would bicker with each other, that was always entertaining to see. Aunt Vern was the type of person who always thought of others. I always enjoyed getting birthday cards from her and the times that I would visit her at her house, she always had lots of sweets to eat. She was a very loving person, I'm just so sorry that I couldn't spend more time with her. It's great to know that she is in heaven with her sister and my mom, looking down on us all, and smiling. She is at peace with no pain and suffering anymore. I will miss her and I love her so.##imported-begin##JENNY RAYL-HUPP##imported-end##
