“ Orville and family,
I was so sorry to hear of Vicki's passing. She was such a sweetheart and I always enjoyed working with her in band activities. I'm so glad you got to go to Florida at least for a few years together. Allison and her friends always enjoyed being at your house. They felt so at home and enjoyed Vicki's snacks.
You are in my prayers and thoughts as you gather together and remember all the good times you've shared.##imported-begin##Kim O'Grady##imported-end##

“ I am Linda Happel's sister. I met Vicki when we were young girls, and carried memories of her with me from that point forward - one of the nicest people I'd ever met. This really revealed itself years later, when as adults, she heard of my husband who needed a liver transplant and his inability to work full time. Vicki and her sister gathered a box full of little boy clothes they had saved over the years, and sent them to me, as we had recently had a little boy. What a thoughtful thing to do for someone she'd only met a few times.

Thank you again Vicki and peace to all.

“ Orvel, Patrick, Adam & Drew,

I worked with Vicki @ SMMC Clinic. She always was so proud of her 'boys'. The fun on vacations, the fun that her boys had in the woods, their accomplishments @ school. She was also a very wonderful and caring nurse and gave it her all to those served. Just know of her love to her family and God is her greatest gift to all. “ To Orville and Terri:

I am so sorry for your loss. Vicki was an incredible person. She was one of those girls in high school that seemed to have everything: looks, intelligence, musical ability, athleticism,..Someone you would love to 'hate', but couldn't because she was so nice. Such a tragedy!

Tina sends her love as well. She was telling me a story that when Vicki was getting her Chemo; she was doing it together with Tracy Deal, her best friend. She said you would have thought there was a party going on in that room, there was so much laughter. What an inspiration she was.

Love you! Cindy###imported-begin##Cindy Seibert Lang###imported-end##
