“ Sue was a special lady and a terrific sister-in-law to me. I deeply mourn her loss! Were I not in poor health myself, I would have attended her memorial service. I extend my deepest sympathy to both Terry and Kenny at the loss of their mother.

In the last few months, I have suffered two heart attacks, two heart stint surgeries, multiple small strokes and a broken back. I am completely laid up and waiting for my journey to heaven where I can reunite with Sue. Anyone wishing to contact me may call me at 682-710-7756. Be patient as I am often not able to answer the phone. You may also reach my daughter, Vicki, with whom I am living, at 817-707-2790.##imported-begin##Pauline Woods##imported-end##

“ Sue was my great aunt (sister to my grandfather, Victor Woods). I have many childhood memories of going to Doc and Sue's house for dinner with my family during the holidays. I also had the pleasure of seeing her Christmas of 2006, when I drove up from Texas bringing Pauline (her sister-in-law) for one last visit. My thoughts and prayers go out to Terry and Kenny at the loss of their dear, sweet mother.##imported-begin##Lisa (Allen) Parrish##imported-end##
