“ Carolyn,

I am so sorry for the loss of your Mother. She was a good friend to my Mother, when you all lived on Pennington Av. She had a sweet smile and disposition. When I saw you this past summer, you had those same attributes. So glad we hooked up. I will be unable to attend the funeral home as I am out of town. However, you will be in my prayers.

Lana,

Many wonderful memories of life on Pennington Avenue with our neighbors and friends. Thank you for your thoughtfulness and sweet words.

*Blessings always,
Carolyn*
