“ I have just learned of the passing of Uncle Sammet. The last time I saw him was at the funeral of my dad, Donald Kuhr. Memories of our times at Grandpa and Grandma Feldmann's house come rushing back. To all of my cousins, I am sorry for your loss. Barbara (Kuhr) Wheeler.

“ Walter was a heartwarming man. I spoke with him most often as he sat in the front pew at St. Joseph Church (All Saints) & before Mass he would talk about his great moments on the Westside of Evansville. He would go to confession often & be most religious, he once told how he said the rosary a few times a day. His brother Joe was a next neighbor to me & we would always go to Mass together! Gods Blessings to Walter, you will truly be missed, Charles A. Raben

“Sorry to hear of Walt's passing. I met Walt, his son Fred and grandson Brian four years ago at our Thursday breakfast group. I will miss his life stories. He was a great guy and always seemed to have a positive attitude. I will keep the family and loved ones in prayers.
